SEPTEMBER 2018

From the President's Desk

Dear Lodge Brothers,

Hope you enjoyed your Labor Day and did not forget about all the hard-working people that have made and continue to make our country so great. I am sure we all have relatives who labored hard to get where we are today.

Wow!! We asked for help for our festival, and we got it. From Wednesday night all the way through Sunday night, we had an abundance of help and support. What a terrific turnout and show of support from all ages – men, women, and children. We could not have pulled off this festival without all of your help. Once again, this is what our club is all about. There were even some people assisting that we did not even know, so how great is that. I personally will be the first one to admit that I was scared to attempt this event again, but we all pulled together and made it bigger and better than last year. My heartfelt appreciation to Jon Biancardi for plugging away at this and having the perseverance and foresight to make it happen.

We were blessed with great weather. All ages came out to watch and participate in our spaghetti eating contests and grape stomping contest and to taste the great food from the vendors. The bocce courts were being put to good use, even when the tournament wasn't going on. The music talent we had was unbelievable and kept everyone entertained, during the daytime as well as the nighttime. We had even more sponsors this year to help defray our costs. Please be sure to support our local sponsors. The raffle was a huge success, so I want to thank everybody who bought and sold tickets.

On behalf of all members, thank you very much to everybody that worked. I cannot even begin to list everyone that volunteered or helped in some way because I know I would miss some people, but a very big THANK YOU goes out to everybody involved from top to bottom. I have asked each chairperson to give proper accolades to their team members and hopefully those names will be in the newsletter either this month or next month.

The date for the tailgate party is September 30th. We will open our doors at 11:00 am. Once again, to prepare enough food we are asking for a $5 donation per person which must be paid in advance. This is a members and spouses only party. See Ed Malloy, Kevin Cieslak or John Juranovich. Go Bears!

Get a group together for our Murder Mystery Dinner on October 26th. This is a fun event that includes audience participation. Call the Villa for tickets. Also, be sure to keep open November 17th for our first Sock Hop featuring The Neverly Brothers.

President's Message

November 4th will be our deceased members mass beginning at 11:00 am. I have found a singer, but we are still looking for someone to play an instrument. This is a family event. We would appreciate if you would please RSVP to the office so we can have enough food prepared.

We are trying something different for the Children's Halloween party on October 28th. The party will be open to all, but special invitations will be sent to the lodge children with policies.

Last week, our Board members went to Buffalo, New York to see how our ISDA is doing and to attend the bi-annual convention. We learned that our finances are doing well and our interest rates are going up. The ISDA account has grown to over $107 million. If you are looking to invest your money at rates that are better than local CDs, let us know. We are going to try to get our new insurance man to come to our club to help us understand all the new policies.

We attended meetings and saw a lot of old friends from ISDA. We even got to go to Niagara Falls one day. A lot of the talk at the convention was about getting younger people involved. Our President Basil Russo asked Jon Biancardi to attend a dinner in New York to represent him at a Columbus Day event. The New York area is opening up two new lodges and Jon will get to talk to them about the ISDA and our own lodge. Congratulations to Jon; we are proud that he was chosen .

The bocce league will be starting again on October 4th and is moving to Thursday nights. Look for more information in the newsletter or contact Jon Biancardi.

Make sure to make plans to attend our Man of the Year party on December 15th honoring the well-deserving John Rizzardo. Tickets will be available at the next meeting.

God Bless and see you at the next meeting or event.

Jim Malloy

OVEN BAKED LEMON GARLIC CHICKEN & VEGETABLES

- 1 large egg
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons minced garlic
- 1/2 tablespoon fresh chopped parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon each salt and pepper
- 1/2 cup breadcrumbs
- 1/3 cup fresh grated parmesan cheese
- 4 skinless, boneless chicken breasts (or thighs)
- 8-10 (1 pound) baby potatoes, quartered
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
- 2 teaspoons minced garlic
- salt to taste
- 1 pound green beans, cut into thirds

Preheat oven to 400°F. Lightly grease a baking sheet with cooking oil spray, or a light coating of oil. Set aside. In a large bowl, whisk together the egg, lemon juice, 2 teaspoons garlic, parsley, salt and pepper. Dip chicken into egg mixture, cover and allow to marinate in the refrigerator for 30 minutes to an hour (if time allows).* In another bowl, combine the breadcrumbs with the parmesan cheese. Dredge the egg coated chicken in the breadcrumb/parmesan mixture, lightly pressing to evenly coat. Place chicken onto the baking sheet and lightly spray with cooking oil spray. Arrange the potatoes around the chicken in a single layer. Mix together the butter, 2 teaspoons garlic and salt to taste, and pour half of the butter mixture over the potatoes. Toss to evenly coat. Bake in preheated oven for 15 minutes. Remove baking tray from the oven and carefully flip each chicken breast. Move the potatoes to one side and place the green beans around the chicken on the other side of the baking sheet. Pour over the remaining garlic butter and return to the oven to broil (or grill) on medium-high heat for a further 10 minutes, or until chicken is golden and crisp, and potatoes are cooked through.

*The chicken develops a deeper flavor when marinated in the egg mixture, although if you don't have time, you can omit this step.

SEPTEMBER 2018

We had such great help and support during the entire Festival this year. There were so many people involved in the set-up and the breakdown from both the men's lodge and the women's lodge, as well as their family members. Sunday night, especially, we had an impressive amount of people cleaning up and putting everything away. Even though we have not listed all those persons from before and after the event, they deserve our deepest gratitude and we THANK YOU ALL. As you are aware, there was a lot of preparation and hard work that went into this Festival over the last year. Thank you to all our committees and their chairpersons who really got the job done! Our biggest thank you, however, goes out to Jon Biancardi, who worked tirelessly to make everything come together, from obtaining sponsorships and vendors, setting up committees, and basically guiding and assisting throughout. We apologize if we have missed any committee members, but please know that everyone is greatly appreciated for making this such a successful event.
